Access the Acumatica User Group

This document provides instructions on how to log into the Acumatica Community and request access to the "Acumatica User Group – National Chapter". If you already have a customer or portal login, that is all you need to start exploring the community. However, this document also has steps if you do not have a login, or perhaps forgot your password.

Already have a Community Login

(Note: This is the same credentials as your partner or customer portal login.)

- 1. Visit https://community.acumatica.com/.
- 2. Select "Login" from the upper right corner.
